

Save the date: Annual Harvard Iranian Summit (5-6 April, 2019)

Salaam doostan!

The Harvard College Iranian Association (HCIA) and Harvard Iranian Alumni (HIA) would like to share an exciting announcement:

The annual Iranian Summit at Harvard will take place on April 5-6, 2019!

In 2018, the Harvard Iranian Gala and Harvard Iranian Weekend both sold out, collectively seeing 500+ attendees and 20+ speakers, including Maz Jobrani, Sharmin and Bijan Mossavar-Rahmani, and Ali Partovi.

The 2019 Iranian Summit at Harvard will kick off with a gala on Friday April 5th at the Harvard Club of Boston, and continue on Saturday April 6th with a weekend conference showcasing contributions made by influential Iranians from around the world in fields as diverse as business, technology, science, the arts, philanthropy and more. This second day will take place at the Richard A. and Susan F. Smith Campus Center.

This year's theme is "Converge," representing how the Summit increasingly serves as a key platform that brings together influential Iranians from across the diaspora in order to honor the many achievements and diverse perspectives of members of our global community.

Tickets will be released shortly. In the meantime, kindly stay tuned by visiting: www.harvardiraniansummit.com.
