

Dumbarton Oaks

Research Library and Collection

2019 Summer Internships

June 3 - August 2

Spend your summer in Washington, D.C. with a fulfilling paid internship at Dumbarton Oaks Research Library and Collection, Harvard's "Home of the Humanities."

Opportunities include:

- Helping preserve images of sites pertaining to Roman & late antique

Applications due: February 1, 2019

To apply for an internship, please send

Syria

- Working with one of the world's largest holdings of Byzantine coins & lead seals
- Exploring alternatives to invasive species in the Dumbarton Oaks Garden
- Researching the labor history of the Dumbarton Oaks Estate

See the complete listing of available internships online!

(1) your résumé, (2) a statement of interest describing any relevant experience and how this internship fits into your personal and professional development, and (3) the names of two referees familiar with your scholarly work, along with their titles and contact information (preferably as one PDF document) to Internships@doaks.org.

Summer 2019 internships run from June 3 to August 2 and carry a stipend of $16/hour for a 35-hour week. Housing and subsidized lunch in the Refectory ($6/day) are provided. Applications are accepted from both undergraduate and graduate students at Harvard University.

Follow us! Twitter | Facebook | Instagram | YouTube

Forward to a friend

Copyright © 2019, All rights reserved.

Find more upcoming events on our website.

Our mailing address is:

Dumbarton Oaks Research Library and Collection
1703 32nd Street NW
Washington, DC 20007

unsubscribe from all emails | update subscription preferences