

Many times, doctoral students of color feel isolated at their institutions and are challenged by the financial implications their degree has on them and their families. We want to support and nurture these rising scholars. We want to create a community to help them thrive and so they know that they are not alone.

That's why we want you to share this opportunity with a doctoral student of color to support their journey through their studies and into their scholarship and teaching.

DOCTORAL FELLOWSHIPS

FTE offers the Fellowship for Doctoral Students of African Descent and the Fellowship for Latino/a, Asian and First Nations Doctoral Students. Each fellowship recipient receives an award up to $25,000.

Qualified candidates must be:

- students of African, Latino/a, Asian, Pacific Islands or First Nations descent
- enrolled full time in a Th.D. or Ph.D. program in religious, theological or biblical studies
- completed with coursework by the beginning of the awarded fellowship year
- in a position to write full-time during the fellowship year if applicant is at the dissertation stage

Applicants who are past coursework but not yet at candidacy (ABD) are eligible to apply.

Click here for more information and to apply online.

All online applications are due by February 1, 2018.
Please note FTE's application platform has changed.

Questions? Contact the Director of Strategic Partnerships for Doctoral Initiatives, Patrick B. Reyes.