

GSAS Series on Fellowship Applications and Other Forms of Professional Development

Organized by Cynthia Verba, Director of Fellowships

FALL CALENDAR 2014

Fulbright Orientation with Past Winners as Speakers

Tuesday, September 9, at 4:00 p.m., Dudley House Graduate Student Lounge

Former Fulbright recipients from GSAS will participate in a panel discussion aimed at graduate students currently applying for the award. They will share their experiences and describe how the Fulbright served to advance their dissertation research.

Fulbright and Other Traveling Fellowships: Description of Opportunities and the Application Process

Wednesday, September 10, at 4:00 p.m., Dudley House Common Room

This session will describe Fulbrights and other traveling fellowships and provide an overview of the application process. It's not too early to start writing your proposal!

Beyond the PhD: Applying for Postdoctoral Fellowships, in All Fields

Thursday, September 25, at 4:00 p.m., Dudley House Common Room

Students currently holding postdoctoral fellowships will share their experiences. The Director of Fellowships will offer advice on how to prepare a competitive application.

Publishing Seminar: Publishing in Books and Scholarly Journals - With Guest Speakers from the Publishing World and Students Who Have Published

Wednesday, November 5, at 4:00 p.m., Dudley House Common Room

The session is aimed at graduate students who will be considering their first submission of an article or a book manuscript for publication. Speakers include a representative from Harvard University Press, as well as graduate students who have published.

The Dissertation: Strategies for Getting From Beginning to End of the Process, for Students in the Humanities, Social Sciences

Wednesday, December 3 at 4:00 p.m., Dudley House Common Room

This session is geared toward students in the humanities and social sciences. Speakers will provide tips for proceeding through the various stages of the dissertation — from choosing a topic, through the writing stage, and getting to completion!