

The 3rd 10-Day Course on Shi'a Studies (Iran)

The University of Religions and Denominations (Qom, Iran) is pleased to offer the 3rd short-term course of Shi'a Islamic Studies on 22th-31stAugust, 2016. This 10-Day English program mainly focuses on Shia Islamic beliefs and practices, as well as Shiite authority, rituals and ceremonies in the contemporary Iran. The program includes guided visits to the local and cultural sites of Qom, Isfahan and Tehran in order to provide a view of day-to-day life in Iran. All faculty, students and researchers in related fields are invited to apply.

The normal fee is $1300 including all local costs. There are some fellowships available for applicants whose competency will be approved in the Executive Committee of the program.

To apply for financial support, please visit our website where you may also register:

<http://shiacourse.urd.ac.ir//>

Please don't hesitate to email us via <mailto:shiacourse@urd.ac.ir> or <mailto:shiacourse3@gmail.com> with any questions.