

Accepting Applications for International Representatives Coordinator

We are searching for current student members of SBL who wish to support the work of the Society and its Student Advisory Board by serving as the International Representatives Coordinator. The role helps to improve ways in which student member needs are met and to establish a stronger connection between the Society and its student members.

Position Descriptions

Network Coordinator (International) The coordinator communicates with our International Representatives Master¹s or doctoral students in biblical, late antique, and related studies and encourages them to represent SBL on their campuses. The task also involves sharing resources and ideas with fellow representatives and working with the Student Advisory Board to ensure that the Society stays in touch with the needs of its student members and addresses those needs through its resources and activities.

The ideal candidate will be able to commit to a minimum of two years. Candidates will also preferably have experience in academic networking on a variety of online social media platform. We strongly encourage underrepresented persons (e.g., women, racial and ethnic minorities) to apply.

If you are a student and a member of SBL and think you would qualify for this position, please complete the application form here. The deadline for applications is Friday, October 30th.
