

Job Opportunity: Seeking Target Language Experts for Modern Hebrew Proficiency Assessment

Seeking Target Language Experts for Modern Hebrew Proficiency Assessment

Avant Assessment, a leading global provider of language proficiency assessments in education, business and government, is creating a test of Modern Hebrew, and we are inviting qualified individuals to work with us as independent contractors in various areas of the test production. Assignments include collection, creation, and translation of authentic language samples, voice recordings, cultural and linguistic consultation, and review and editing work.

Work on the project will start immediately and will last several weeks. This is an exciting opportunity for anyone interested in language testing and/or Modern Hebrew language teaching. All work can be done online.

If you would like to participate in this project, please send your resume and a brief statement of interest to jan.beck@avantassessment.com

QUALIFICATIONS

We will consider working with individuals who have the linguistic, academic, and professional experience in both English and Modern Hebrew necessary to succeed in the project. Evidence of relevant experience includes but is not limited to:

Native or native-like proficiency in Modern Hebrew

For non-native speakers of English, evidence of excellent spoken and written English language skills (e.g. test scores, language samples, work/studies in English speaking countries)

College degree from a university where Hebrew is the primary language of instruction

Work experience in contexts where Hebrew is a main medium of communication

Academic and/or professional background in linguistics, language teaching, translation, or a related field

Voice-acting and/or public-speaking experience (e.g. theater, film, radio, public speaking, etc.)

Experience teaching Modern Hebrew in primary and/or secondary schools

COMPENSATION

Payment depends on the specific assignment.
