Bard College invites applications for a full-time, open rank position in the Religion Program, in the area of Judaic Studies. This is an endowed chair, the Jacob Neusner Professor in the History and Theology of Judaism, in recognition of his distinguished contributions to the field and to Bard College. The position contributes centrally to both the Religion Program and the Jewish Studies concentration.

The position requires a strong commitment to teaching and scholarship in a liberal arts setting. The period of specialization is open.

Applications will be reviewed as they are received. Nominations are especially welcome.

For more information on the Religion Program at Bard, visit <http://religion.bard.edu/> or contact Bruce Chilton, chilton@bard.edu.

To apply, please submit a letter of application, a curriculum vitae, a teaching and research statement, a writing sample, and three letters of recommendation through Interfolio.com at: <http://apply.interfolio.com/31517>

Bard College is an equal opportunity employer and we welcome applications from those who will contribute to our diversity.
