Title: Adjunct Part-time Position in Elementary Syriac

School: Harvard Divinity School

Position Description:

Harvard Divinity School seeks an adjunct instructor/lecturer in Elementary Syriac to teach an eight-week intensive course on intermediate and advanced intermediate Biblical Hebrew from June 17 to August 8, 2019, as part of the Summer Language Program in Cambridge, MA. This is a summer appointment only and will not be continued into the academic year.

The teaching material covers the target language from the beginner's level up to intermediate competency (equivalent to the first year of college instruction in Syriac). No prerequisite is noted for students in order to take this class.

Candidates for the teaching position should be competent in the target language and have proven experience in college/university teaching. The appointment title will depend on the finalist's qualifications. Ph.D., or other advanced terminal degree required.

Basic Qualifications:

Applicants should demonstrate the following qualifications: (1) completed advanced degree and (2) substantial experience in teaching Syriac at all levels. Previous publications are desirable, but not required.

Contact Information:

Applicants may contact Karin Grundler-Whitacre, Director of the Summer Language Program at Harvard Divinity School, with questions regarding the position.
